

Rockefeller Center studio listing – from Wikipedia

NBC Studio productions

Studio	Production	Notes	Floor
1A	The Today Show , Dateline NBC	The network's daily morning program is produced at a ground-level windowed studio across 49th Street from the GE Building since the mid-1990s, at 10 Rockefeller Plaza; it was previously broadcast from inside the skyscraper. Studio 1A is a multilevel studio currently used for multiple shows including the studio segments of Dateline NBC . Countdown was used 2nd floor of 1A. The studio was also used by WNBC's Live at Five and MSNBC's Countdown with Keith Olbermann . WNBC, which used temporarily in October 1996 due to a fire in 6B, ^[2] and NBC Nightly News for a short period during decontamination of the broadcast's facilities and offices in October 2001 due to the 2001 anthrax attacks .	Ground floor
2K	MSNBC Secondary HD Control Room	Debuted October 22, 2007, and is the home to MSNBC programs. An MSNBC/NBC News Newsroom connects control room 2K and studio floor 3A.	2nd floor

3A	MSNBC main studios and headquarters	Debuted October 22, 2007, and is the home to many MSNBC programs including the main news desk where MSNBC Live and other MSNBC programs are shot. An MSNBC/NBC News Newsroom connects Studio 3A and Studio 3C. Former home of NBC Nightly News. Converted for TV in 1950	3rd floor
3B	Rock Center with Brian Williams^[3] NBC Nightly News	Former home of the Huntley-Brinkley Report,^[4] The Doctors,^[5] the Today Show, Dateline NBC, NBC Nightly News, and coverage of the 2008 presidential election Originally contained a pipe organ according to "Airwaves of New York" by Bill Jaker et al. Converted for TV in 1950	3rd floor
3C	WNBC	Formerly home of NBC Nightly News from 1999-October 23, 2011, however the studio's size was decreased significantly during a 2007 renovation. Became the home for News 4 New York on April 21, 2012.^[6]	3rd floor
3H Decommissioned	Experimental Television ^[7]	The first studio in the building to be converted for Television production, being converted in 1935 and served as NBC Television's lone studio^[8] until the conversion of Studio 8G in	3rd floor

		1948. 3H was adjacent to Studio 3C. This studio has been decommissioned since the early 1960s and served as scenery storage ^[9] for a number of decades. A portion or all of this area is being used to expand Studio 3C for its future use as WNBC's studio.
3K	Early Today/The Ed Show/The Last Word with Lawrence O'Donnell	Former home of NBC Nightly News , NBC Sports , The Today Show , and The Howdy Doody Show , ^[10] green screen room for coverage of 2008 presidential election result program for NBC News/MSNBC. ^[11]	3rd floor
5HN Decommissioned	NBC News Emergency "Flash" Studio	A small studio used for breaking news bulletins during the Huntley-Brinkley Era . Most notably, network coverage regarding the John F. Kennedy assassination originated from this studio.	5th floor
6A	The Dr. Oz Show	A former home of Twenty One , ^[12] The Tomorrow Show , ^[13] Late Night with David Letterman , Late Night with Conan O'Brien , and NBC Radio Network programs from 1933 to the 1950s. 6A was the first 30 Rock studio to be converted for high definition television .	6th floor
6B	Late Night with Jimmy Fallon	Howdy Doody (1947–1960). Also the original home of The	6th

		Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson, The Tonight Show Starring Jack Paar and NBC Nightly News . Former home for the news studio for flagship station WNBC .	floor
6C	NBC Digital Studios	The current home of such web based shows as "The Untitled News Comedy Show", "Starstruck", and "A Big Life with Sissy Biggers". Was previously home to a small set for WNBC as well as WNBC's Master control. ^[14]	6th floor
6E	Global Media Insert Studios [2]	Former home of Early Today and MSNBC secondly studio (Ed Show home and Breaking News coverage), called as "Newsnooks". This space was previously a portion of WNBC's Master Control.	6th floor
6H	30 Rock	30 Rock, which began here in 2006, will tape here until late 2012 or early 2013.	6th floor
7E	New York Nonstop	Home of WNBC's newscasts from 2008 to 2012. This studio is the newest studio in the building, being constructed inside an old conference room. The studio still has the Channel 4 newsroom, but is currently used for New York Nonstop .	7th floor

8A	(Unknown)	A "Studio 8A" is marked on an official drawing ^[15] of the 8th floor of the building. Judging by the surrounding area, this studio was likely used for audio recording. It's possible this studio was converted to television studio 8B.	8th floor
8B	Decision 2010 Coverage	This studio was used for coverage of the 2010 Midterm Elections . ^[16]	8th floor
8G	Football Night in America/NBC SportsDesk	A former radio studio converted for Television use in 1948 and went on air April 22 of that year. ^[7] Former home of The Phil Donahue Show , The Rosie O'Donnell Show , The Caroline Rhea Show , and The Jane Pauley Show , as well as the original Jeopardy! from 1964 to 1975. NBC Nightly News used this studio during the 2007 renovations of NBC News headquarters, except on some Sunday evenings where, due to football programming, the news was broadcast from Studio 1A. This studio has also been used for Decision 2008 and Decision 2010 election night coverage.	8th floor
8H	Saturday Night Live	Former home of Last Call with Carson Daly Former home of Later with Bob Costas Former home of the NBC	8th floor

		Symphony Orchestra under Arturo Toscanini Used for offsite coverage of the 2008 and 2012 Summer Olympics Used for the Live Show and Live from Studio 6H episodes of 30 Rock Converted for TV 1950
--	--	---	--