

United Broadcasting Company

Operations begin: November 5, 1930

The United Broadcasting Company (L.L. Davis, Chairman) began its West Coast network from Los Angeles. The inaugural program started at 7:00 PM.

The UBC Chain stations:

KFWB Hollywood

KTM Los Angeles

KTAB San Francisco (now KFSO)

KXA Seattle

KXL Portland

KGB San Diego

KORE Eugene

KMED Medford

KVOS Bellingham

On February 26, 1931 UBC announced that it had merged with NBS - The Northwest Broadcasting System, owners of KJR Seattle, KEX Portland & KGA Spokane. Both chains would run independently.

On April 1, 1931 UBC suspended operations.

With assistance from Craig Adams.