

Velvetone - The Heart of Radio
By Chas F. Caldwell and Fred D. Moore
1926

All my troubles fade like bubbles
Life is one sweet dream
You would never know
What has changed me so
There's a reason I'm in season
Always up to date
I've always sought one
Now I've got one
Listen while I say.

(CHORUS)

Now days its Velvetone
Its Velvetone
They're usin choosin
It gives me the sweetest tone
like a saxophone so sweet
My honey
When you hear it playing while your feet just won't keep still You try to do some facncy steps tho its against your will I'm saying Velvetone, the Velvetone I'm crooninn
no foolin
For it's the perfect sound that blends around and fills you with surprise
Now if you want long distance o so pretty
There's Chicago, Kansas City,
For they all come in so sweet on Velvetone

CHORUS

(Velvetone) Hum

That's It.
