

The Don Lee Network

Started: 1929, as a west coast leg of CBS.

Original stations:

KFRC San Francisco

KHJ Los Angeles

KFBK Sacramento

KBEE Modesto

KOH Reno

KMJ Fresno

KERN Bakersfield

Later, also including KDON Salinas

Don Lee was a Cadillac dealer on the west coast. His network included a number of McClatchy stations. Lee died September, 1934 at age 53.

The Don Lee Net was purchased by General Tire January 1951.

In 1959 the Don Lee Network was purchased by ABC. The Network ceased operation and programming became part of ABC Radio.

Operations Ended: April 26, 1959